“HOMELAND OF AFRICAN TRADITIONAL RELIGION”

Double Occupancy $4,999.00*/Single Occupancy $5,799.00*
MAY 25-JUNE 8, 2018

Make Plans Now for a Fantastic Pilgrimage to Benin, West Africa for Your Own Personal Homecoming Experience! As the birthplace of African Traditional Religion known as “voodoo”, Benin, oozes the exotic and offers plenty of engaging, curious and amazing experiences as it was once the seat of West Africa’s most powerful kingdom and played an important role during the colonial and slave history of Africa. With its glittering palaces, floating villages and python-filled temples, this is truly a fascinating country that has remained relatively unknown to African-American travelers. Highlights of Your Pilgrimage to Benin in West Africa Tour include: Welcome Dinner; City Tour of Cotonou, the Capital City of Benin; visit to Ganvie, an amazing village built on stilts on Lake Nokue known as the “Venice of West Africa”; visit to Alladah to learn more about the ancestral homeland of Toussaint L’Ouverture, the founder of the Republic of Haiti; visit to Abomey to meet with the ancient capital of the Dahomey empire and learn more about the amazing elite female “amazon” warriors; visit to Porto Novo to learn about the ancient kingdom and mysterious “Night Guardians”; visit Ouidah to learn about the cradle of the traditional African religion of Voodoo and see the “Arch of Return” while learning about the trans-Atlantic slave history from the perspective of Benin; and a Farewell Dinner with an Authentic Benin Naming Ceremony. Also enjoy plenty of shopping opportunities for textiles, handicrafts and jewelry and much more!
